Respiratory Therapy's Casey Manning Wins Warren Scholarship

GREENVILLE—Casey Manning, a Pitt Community College Respiratory Therapy student, was recently named the Greenville Morning Rotary Club's 2009 Sen. Ed N. Warren Scholarship recipient.

A Winterville resident, Manning is an active member of PCC's Association of Respiratory Therapy students. She is a Dean's List student with a 3.94 grade point average in her first year at Pitt.

Manning, who was recognized by the PCC Foundation last month with an Academic Excellence Award, is also an active member of her church, where she is a youth leader, volunteer choir director and Sunday School teacher.

Manning's volunteerism also includes work with Creekside Elementary School, Children's Miracle Network, Make-A-Wish Foundation, Feed the Children, and March of Dimes.

As this year's Warren Scholarship recipient, Manning will receive $1,000 toward her PCC education.

Greenville Morning Rotary established the Warren Scholarship four years ago to honor former club member and N.C. State Sen. Ed N. Warren. The involvement in school activities and service to the community.
